

Faith Awareness in Children Trust

Gifts in Wills

Make a difference
to the next generation

FACT is a registered charity whose passion is to be cutting edge in children's ministry, enabling children to explore the Christian faith and Jesus Christ with opportunities to reflect on them in a way that is appropriate to their age and development.

Why support FACT?

FACT is a charity in the true sense of the word, funded through the generosity of supporters.

Your Gift will enable us to continue and expand:

Our work in homes and pre-schools

- Creating, producing and giving away free resources to family units, regardless of their make up or faith preferences.
- Visiting Parent & Toddler groups, nurseries and playgroups to aid and nurture spiritual development and exploration

Our work in churches

- Working with Church partners from many denominations
- Spearheading work amongst the generations known as the "Millennial's" and "Gen Z"

Our work with parents

- Specially created parenting programmes offer support and help to parents in their primary role.

YOUR gift will ensure that we will be able to continue to offer households and children the opportunity to consider what they think and believe.

How do I leave a gift in a will, also known as a legacy?

If you have already made a will and would like to leave a gift to FACT, it is possible for you to add to your existing will. This is called a codicil.

Residual legacy

We recognise that some people may feel uncomfortable leaving money to charity when their own family needs to be provided for. We do not want you to leave us money that should rightly go to your surviving relatives. By dividing up the bulk of your estate between family and friends and leaving the remainder to charity you can ensure that your loved ones are properly provided for and also support your favourite charity. This can be the most beneficial type of legacy as its value increases over time in line with the value of your estate.

Sample wording

"I give all (or a share of) the residue of my estate to Faith Awareness in Children Trust (known as FACT) of Ashford Baptist Church, Church Road, Ashford, TW15 2TT (RCN 1055843) for its general purposes and I direct that the receipt of the treasurer to the trustees shall be sufficient discharge to my executors"

Specific legacy

This is when you leave a particular named item as a gift in your will.

Sample wording

"I give to Faith Awareness in Children Trust (known as FACT) of Ashford Baptist Church, Church Road, Ashford, TW15 2TT (RCN 1055843) my (description of item) absolutely for its general purposes and I direct that the receipt of the treasurer to the trustees shall be sufficient discharge to my executors"

Pecuniary legacy

This is when you leave a fixed sum of money to charity after ensuring that your family has been provided for.
